SENATOR HARDING SPEAKS AT ASHLAND ON SEPTEMBER 29TH

On Trip From East Republican Candidate to Speak in State—Local Leaders Ask For Talk in Maysville.

Senator Warren G. Harding will speak at Ashland, Ky., Wednesday, September 29, according to a dispatch from New York. The information was given out by Thomas W. Miller, head of the eastern division of the Speakers' Bureau of the Republican National Committee.

Republicans from all parts of the eastern section of the state are expected to attend the meeting. Mr. Harding will go to Ashland from Wheeling, W. Va., where he is to speak September 28. He is booked for Baltimore September 27.

Mr. Harding's visit to Kentucky will take place nine days after the Bluegrass Republicans make their pilgrimage to the Harding front porch in Marion, Ohio. The G. O. P. special will leave Louisville at 10:30 o'clock Sunday night, returning early Tuesday morning.

Preliminary to the address of the Senator will be the formal opening of the Republican campaign in the state tomorrow, Constitution Day.

Eight orators are booked. They are headed by R. P. Ernst, Covington, nominee for Senator, who is scheduled to deliver his keynote address in Danville at night.

Others who will speak are: Congressman Robinson, London, afternoon; E. G. Asher, Liberty, afternoon; Jackson Morris and Congressman John W. Langley, Booneville, afternoon; W. C. Owens, Winchester, night; John H. Gilliam, Lewisburg, afternoon; V. Y. Morgan, Morgantown.

Local Republicans upon learning today that Senator Harding speaks at Ashland en route from the East, immediately got in touch with the Speakers' Bureau requesting that if the candidate passed through Maysville on the C. & O. after his Ashland visit, that he be requested to make a short talk in Maysville from his coach platform. If this arrangement can be made, due announcement will immediately follow.

BOYS BAND MAKES A HIT DESPITE RAIN DOWNPOUR

Manager of Gibson House Very Kind To Members of Band Who Were Drenched in Down-Pour During Big Parade.

The Boys' Band is back from Cincinnati where on Wednesday they took part in the big Knights Templar parade which broke up in a down-pour of rain. They all report a splendid time although they were nearly drowned marching several blocks in this heavy down-pour before the parade was broken-up by orders of the Grand Marshal.

Upon arriving in Cincinnati Wednesday morning, the band members went to the Gibson House where they were welcomed by their old friend, Manager Hawk. At 11 o'clock they played a concert on the Mezzanine floor of the Gibson and at noon took dinner at this famous hostelry. At 12:30 they marched down Fourth street to the Grand Hotel where they met the members of Alliance, Salem and Warren Commandaries and they then took their position in the line of march at Lawrence street.

After the parade started the band marched through the down-pour until they reached 14th street and there disbanded and went to the College of Music for shelter. Manager Russell ordered automobiles and had the members returned to the Gibson hotel where Manager Hawk furnished them with rooms and after removing their soaked uniforms they were put to bed while their underwear and uniforms were thoroughly dried. All of the boys were given shower baths and every precaution was taken to prevent them from contracting cold.

Manager Russell was assisted by Mr. Frank Hendrickson and wife, Mr. Joseph Caproni, Dr. P. G. Smoot and wife, Mr. William Wood and Mr. Charles Triebel.

Mr. Robert Vicenti, a veteran band leader who has been teaching music for fifty years, was requested by Manager Hawk, of the Gibson, to hear our band and after hearing several numbers he complimented them very highly by saying that they were the best amateur band he had heard.

COAXED LITTLE GIRL INTO VACANT ROOM, IS CHARGE

"Kirk" Stickley's Remaining in Hiding Causes Friends To Fear There May Be Grounds For Charge.

The Augusta Chronicle tells the following story of the charge in that town against "Kirk" Stickley, Maysville man:

Lycourges J. Stickley, aged about 55 years, is wanted by the Bracken county authorities upon a charge of having attempted to criminally assault a seven-year-old girl of Augusta. The alleged attack occurred on Wednesday of last week.

Stickley, who is a painter and paper-hanger, had been at work in a house on Seminary avenue and coaxed the little girl into the vacant room, taking her to an upstairs room where the attempted assault was made. The man disarranged the clothing of the little girl, but before he could accomplish his purpose, was interrupted by an older sister of the child.

The mother of the little girl did not tell of the attempted assault until her husband returned home on 7 Saturday night, the husband having been away at work all week.

Stickley left here on 2 Saturday, going to Maysville, and the last seen of him at that place was at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, when he was on his way to the coal docks in East Maysville.

Chief of Police Ort, of Maysville, was notified and he made diligent search for Stickley, but was not able to locate him, although it was reported that he was in Carlisle Monday.

Stickley has been doing work in Augusta for more than one year, but is a native of Maysville, where he has a brother. He is about 55 years old, about five feet five inches tall, with a heavy dark mustache.

It is said here that for some time Stickley has been taking small girls to the picture shows at night and being familiar with them in other ways.

The accused man is said to have been a Holiness preacher at one time. The Chronicle refrains from mentioning the name of the little girl, but the parents are good people and would not make such a grave charge unless they were positive that they were right.

When the charge was first heard here hundreds of friends expressed confidence in him and belief in his innocence but his remaining in hiding instead of facing the charge is causing many to lose their faith and feel there must be some basis for the charge.

BOYS' BAND TO PLAY AT AMERICAN LEGION CARNIVAL

Our own Maysville Boys' Band will open the carnival on Monday night with a patriotic air and play popular airs throughout the night. The band will likewise play in the middle of the week, also on the closing night.

The general agent, Mr. Joseph M. Sheeran, of the Lorman-Robinson Shows, who has heard boys' bands, such as St. Peter's and the Glard College Band of Philadelphia, and other cities of the country, says that Maysville should feel highly honored with its band, as they really can and do play as good as any band he has ever heard in the bigger cities.

PURCHASER OF HORSE GETS HEAVY DAMAGES.

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday in the case of Jefferson vs. Calvert Early, the jury found for the plaintiff awarding him damages in the sum of $225. Mr. Jefferson purchased a stallion from Mr. Early, which he charged afterwards proved to be wad-broken, although he was led to believe the animal was sound. The jury first returned a verdict that Mr. Jefferson return the horse to Mr. Early and Mr. Early return the purchase price but as this provision was not in the instructions, the jury was required to make a new verdict which they did awarding Mr. Jefferson $225 damages.

POPULARITY CONTEST.

Who's going to be the lucky lady to capture the prizes of the American Legion's ladies popularity contest?

Maysville lassies are all asking themselves "Have I a chance to win?" You have if you will but try and put your shoulder to the wheel and put on steam and ask your friends to help and maybe by the next count you may be the one on top. Who knows?

BAPTIST PRAYER MEETING IS HELD TONIGHT.

JUDGE COCHRAN EXTENDS ARGUMENT IN COAL CASE

Further Argument in Case Seeking Injunction Against U. S. Attorney Shalters To Be Heard Saturday.

Federal Judge Cochran will hear further arguments in the case of the Marrowbone Coal Company, seeking an injunction against District Attorney Thomas D. Shalters and Assistant District Attorney Charles Fennell, to prevent them from further proceeding investigation of coal profiteering Saturday morning in Covington.

The company is seeking an interlocutory injunction against further inquiry by the government into alleged profiteering on the part of the operators until the validity of the Lever fuel and food act is passed upon by the United States Supreme Court.

Judge Cochran has postponed receiving the final report of the Special Federal Grand Jury from tomorrow until Saturday. Unless the court grants the injunction in the coal case, it is said, the grand jury will report indictments against about two hundred coal operators mainly from Eastern Kentucky.

At this meeting the names of Oral James, W. S. Antle and Roy Nau-man were added to the Board of Stewards.

GRAND JURY IS EXPECTED TO REPORT AT HARLAN TODAY

Band of 100 Men Search Mountain to-day for Pocketbook Carried by Miss Lura Parsons When Murdered.

Harlan, Ky., Sept. 15. — A report from the grand jury investigating the assault and murder of Miss Lura Parsons, Pine Mountain Settlement School teacher last Tuesday, is expected Thursday. The grand jury adjourned this afternoon until tomorrow after a three day session during which it questioned Dr. H. C. Winnes, Frankfort veterinarian; negroes from the convict camp near Harlan, and teachers in the Settlement School where Miss Parsons was employed.

It is believed that the net of evidence is tightening about the negro convict camp and an indictment in the next few days is expected. Three men at the camp are kept under constant surveillance, but James Robinson, Fayette county negro who was driving the water wagon the day of the murder is suspected by many of the crime.

Judge H. L. Moore and James O'Connor, of Jenkins, are in Harlan to assist Dr. Winnes in proving his innocence. They came unsolicited by the doctor at the request of his friends in Jenkins, where he lived for several years.

Senator H. M. Brock will leave Thursday morning for Lexington with the bloodstained coat and shirt, and the club with which the teacher was killed, to have a chemical analysis made of the stains. The articles found near the scene of the murder have been kept in Harlan to be used as evidence before the grand jury.

A band of 100 men from all parts of the county will go tomorrow to the spot where the body was found to search for a pocketbook the teacher is known to have carried. The inside case which contained her money was found several days ago, empty except for a parcel post receipt, and it is believed the discovery of the pocketbook may lead to the culprit.

GET-TOGETHER MEETING OF ADULT CLASSES PLANNED

County Sunday School Committee Considers Plans To Create More Interest In Adult Sunday School Classes.

The county Sunday school committee held a very important meeting at the home of Miss Mary Wilson last evening. Among other matters considered was the question of holding a booster meeting of the adult Bible classes of the city and county.

There are several strong men and women's classes in the city and county. It has been found that these classes are a great help and inspiration to the Sunday school. In order to push this phase of the work it was thought a union get-together meeting at which the social feature would have a place as well as a program that would encourage all present with the work. Committees on program, attendance, and publicity were appointed. It is proposed to boost the class spirit as much as possible. Bible classes will be asked to exercise a spirit of rivalry as to which will have the largest representation.

The committees will have all details worked out and present them for final adoption at a meeting of the committee next Wednesday night. After which a red hot campaign will be started to make it one of the biggest Adult Bible class meetings the old town has ever had. The time and place for holding this meeting will be announced after the next meeting of the committee.

"RINGTAIL" GETS JAIL SENTENCE AND FINE

Jury Fixes Punishment of One of Men Who Escaped Jail at Six Months in Jail and $50 Fine.

Bud Berry, colored, better known as "Ringtail" was given a jail sentence of six months and a fine of $50 by a jury in the Mason Circuit Court this morning on a charge of cutting and wounding with intent to kill.

Berry was arrested some several months ago on a charge of cutting and seriously injuring Ben Whaley, also colored, with whom he had a quarrel and fight in Dieterich's Lane. Whaley's wound proved a serious one and complications developed which kept him housed for many weeks. For a time physicians feared he would not recover.

It will be remembered that Berry is one of the men who escaped from the Mason county jail some time ago. He was rearrested at Ripley, Ohio, a letter he had mailed to his sweetheart in this city being the clew which sent the local police to Ohio for him.

TOO MUCH GAS.

The following letter from the Kalamazoo Vegetable Parchment Company, Kalamazoo, Mich., has been received by customers and contains so much truth that it is herewith published. Our readers will profit by thinking about it.

All that we know about automobiles, is that they are a mixed blessing.

We know that they have come to stay; that they serve many useful purposes, that they are a mighty fine plaything for people who can afford them, but we also believe, as do you, that they are directly and indirectly responsible for very much of the present abnormality in the way of high prices in general and very much of present foolishness in particular.

When a car was not acting right, we have heard the driver say, "She has too much gas." Well, we don't know about that but we do know as do you that the world is suffering right now from TOO MUCH GAS.

We have been feeding ourselves on too many cream puffs and knickknacks.

Too little work, too much play, too much jazz and not enough of the old-time steady marching music.

Will we swing back? We sure will, if you and every other level headed man will simply do your part.

You've just got to hold 'er, boy, you've got to hang on to your faith in God Almighty and your confidence in mankind and woman-kind in general.

Certain people, certain groups are right now running amuck.

Nature gave you a head to keep cool and a heart to keep warm.

In order to preserve the balance, in order to offset the wild thinking and the insane acts of the non-thinkers and the wrong thinkers, it is up to you to take a stand as one of the world's pinch hitters.

Nothing good can be gained by shaking the head and chanting that old, old refrain that the world is going to the bow-wow.

In the first place, it isn't true. The world has simply been using a wrong mixture, that's all. One of these days the law of reaction will take hold and then we will have a change for the better. In the meantime, Hold 'er boy, Hold 'er.

IN THE DAYS NEWS.

Sixteen years old today is Prince Humbert, or Umberto, as they say in Italy, who in the course of time is destined to ascend the Italian throne. Despite his youth he has won a place in the affections of his future subjects which is almost as great as that of the King himself. The Prince is a Boy Scout, and the most enthusiastic Boy Scout in Italy. As soon as Italy entered the war he asked to be allowed to take his place with the army, though only twelve years old. In response to his pleadings his father permitted him to accompany him on several visits to the front. There the soldier cheered him to the echo, a smiling, happy boy in a special military uniform, which he wore as proudly as the most seasoned fighter. The young Prince is now rapidly growing into manhood, ready to take over the reins of government when called on.

WORKINGS OF PROHIBITION WILL BE DISCUSSED

Conference of Prohibition Leaders To Be Held in Washington This Month To Discuss Experience.

The working of prohibition in the United States will be closely observed, and conclusions as to the practical success of the dry laws reached by delegates to the Fifteenth International Congress Against Alcoholism, Washington September 21 to 26, inclusive. Opportunities for observation as to the workings of prohibition will be had by different ones of the foreign delegates as a result of lecture and other tours which they will make in this country. In addition to information gained through personal observation and inquiry, the Congress itself will take on the character of an open forum in which there will be extensive discussions of the practical effects of the eighteenth amendment.

As Finland is the only nation other than the United States which is under prohibition law, the prohibition commissioner from that country, Dr. M. Helenius Seppala, will naturally attract much attention, especially as he is to make a report on "Prohibition in Finland." On the same day on which Dr. Seppala appears, Thursday, September 23, John F. Kramer, prohibition commissioner of the United States will discuss "Prohibition in the United States." It is expected that Mr. Kramer will go more fully into this subject of this occasion than at any other time since assuming office.

The countries other than the United States and Finland to be represented at the International Congress will be represented by specialists who will discuss alcohol from the standpoint of a disease breeder, particularly, in some instances, as in the case of Dr. Endo Mont of Turin, many economic uses to which the wine grape may be put, will be reported upon, Dr. Mont being a chemist of international repute.

A feature of the Congress' sessions will be the appearance of Colonel William Jennings Bryan whose address on Friday evening, September 24, will take up the entire time of the Congress. Colonel Bryan has not yet announced his subject.

A TOWN'S FUNERAL.

A town that never has anything to do in a public way is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will not do the grave. A man that susses the town is driving the hearse. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to give affairs, is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is driving the hearse. The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise thrown upon the grave. The man who is so stingy as to be howling hard times, preaches the funeral, sings the doxology. And thus the town lies buried from all sorrow and care. — "News," Downs, Kansas.

ALWAYS A BOOSTER.

Boost and the world boosts with you. Knock and you're on the shelf. For the world get sick of the one who'll kick.

And wishes he'd kick himself. Boost when the sun is shining. Boost when it starts to rain. If you happen to fall, don't fit there and howl.

But get up and boost again. Boost for your advancement. Boost for the things sublime. For the chap who's found on the top-most round. Is the booster every time.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

Today is the fortieth birthday of Alfred Noyes, one of the most celebrated of the present-day English poets, and who is well known to Americans by reason of his long residence on this side of the Atlantic and his frequent appearance as a lecturer before American audiences. The poet was born in Staffordshire, England, and received his education at Exeter College, Oxford. While still attending college he began contributing poems to some of the leading English periodicals. Since then numerous volumes of verse have come from his pen. In 1914 Mr. Noyes was elected a member of the Princeton faculty, under agreement to deliver lectures at the university each year on modern English letters. A year ago King George decorated him with the new "Order of the British Empire," for services in the cause of the allies.

Owe Their Health To
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine. Compared with it, all other medicines for women's ills seem to be experiments. Why is it so successful? Simply because of its sterling worth. For over forty years it has had no equal. Women for two generations have depended upon it with confidence. Thousands of Their Letters are on our files, which prove these statements to be facts, not mere boasting.

Here Are Two Sample Letters:
Fall River, Mass. — "Three years ago I gave birth to a little girl and after she was born I did not pick up well. I doctored for two months and my condition remained the same. One day one of your little books was left at my door and my husband suggested that I try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I started it immediately and I felt better and could eat better after the first bottle, and I continued taking it for some time. Last year I gave birth to a baby boy and had a much easier time as I took the Vegetable Compound for four months before baby came. On getting up I had no pains like I had before, and no dizziness, and in two weeks felt as well as well as ever." — Mrs. THOMAS WILKINSON, 365 Columbia Street, Fall River, Mass.

TRAMP STOLE TROUSERS AND GETS THIRTY DAYS.

The Fleming Gazette says: Last Wednesday Deputy Sheriff Geo. Powell brought here and lodged in jail a man about 4 years of age, giving his name as Frank Powers and his home as Georgia. In the county court next day Powers confessed to petty larceny and was given thirty days in jail. He seems to be an itinerant marble cutter and he was charged with stealing a pair of trousers from the Garnett & Day marble shop at Nepton, where he had been permitted to sleep Tuesday night. He was arrested in Paris Wednesday and was found to be wearing the missing trousers.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

The body of Charles Seyler, aged about 25, was found under an apple tree, near the home of his father, Gus Seyler, at Boude's Ferry, late Tuesday afternoon, death having resulted from a shotgun wound over the heart, self-inflicted. The last time Mr. Seyler saw his son alive was Monday afternoon, and when he did not return that night, supposed that he had gone to his brother's home at Higginsport to spend the night. Young Seyler used a string in pulling the trigger of the shotgun. There is no known reason for the rash act. Young Seyler was well known on this side of the river. —Augusta Chronicle.

McCOMBS OIL COMPANY SUE FOR $10,527 BY FRITZ

David E. Fritz, of Winchester, Ky., yesterday entered suit in the United States District Court, Covington, to recover $10,527 from the McCombs Producing and Refining Company and the Local Oil and Gas Company, both of Winchester.

The plaintiff says the money is due him as commission on the sale of gas and oil lands in Lee county, but the defendant companies violated his contract and sold the property to the Index Oil Company for $210,550. Fritz claims he is entitled to 5 per cent of the sales money under his contract.
